

2010 Best of the Best Sauce Entry & Rules

RULES

1) Each entry must be a WINNER (TOP 10 FINISH) in a prior barbecue sauce competition in order to compete in the Best of the Best Competition. Send proof with entry unless you are a returning entry from past years.

2) All entries are to be labeled with the correct name of the sauce, FDA nutritional information, and ingredients used to make the sauce. Submit 32 ounces for each entry. This is a BARBECUE SAUCE contest. No salsas or hot sauces, unless packaged commercially for barbecue sauce market, will be entertained. Entries must be labeled and packaged.

3) Entries will be judged using comparison system. Each judge will have no more than 10 entries for each category. Using a 6.1 to 10.0 number system, each entry will be judged on texture/appearance and aroma of product and taste with meat. Highest overall score wins. (Texture/appearance/aroma will count for 20% of overall score and Taste will count 80% of score.) Best Label is the exception to this rule.

4) Entry deadline is October 1, 2010. (No Exceptions!)

Cost of Entry: Each entry is $25. No limit on the number of entries a single person can have, but no individual product can be entered into the same category more than once. Send all entries via USPS, UPS, FedEx, etc. (along with sauce entries for each sauce) to Best of the Best BBQ Sauce Competition, 213B North Peterson Ave., Douglas, GA 31533. (SHIPPING ADDRESS ONLY)
